

We're in touch with the pulse of the Milwaukee region. Now you can be, too.

Don't miss the wealth of information in the full-color Business Resource Guide. This section provides up-to-date facts on our regional business community and how you can make the most of your MMAC Membership.

We are pleased, once again, to present you with MMAC's award-winning Membership Directory. This publication is much more than a business directory. It gives readers valuable information about our vibrant region and connects them to the pulse of the business community.

Based on member feedback, you'll find a digital directory of members on our website - mmac.org. The site also features enhanced membership company profiles, online event registration and resources for new employees moving to the Milwaukee region.

The Business Resource Guide is also available as a stand-alone print publication. For additional copies, contact MMAC's Research Department at 414-287-4122.
